

Release Form

The Texas Legislature has added a chapter to the Civil Practice and Remedies Code to limit liabilities for equine activities, effective September 1, 1995.

Chapter 87 of the code says there is no liability for property damage or damages arising from personal injury or death of a participant in an equine activity, if the damage or injury results from a risk inherent in equine activities. Inherent risks include collisions with other animals, certain surface conditions, the unpredictability of an animal's reaction to certain stimuli and potential of a participant to act in a negligent manner contributing to an injury.

I hereby understand that Cross Brand Cowboy Church of Tyler, Texas, it's members, and all other persons and organizations connected with this Church or Arena are not to be held responsible for any injuries which I or my horse may incur while riding on the church property or in the arena at 11915 FM 2015 Tyler, TX 75708 or as a result thereof. I hereby waive any claims for damages to my person or property. This release is good for 1 year for riding on the above referenced property only and does not pertain to any other events held at the CBCC arena.

You must be a member or riding with a member to use the CBCC Arena.
